Reds' Peace Parley May End in Blast

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The journey to Moscow this weekend by Red China's Premier Chou En-lai and his delegation may spell little but trouble for the post-Khrushchev regime.

Ostensibly, Premier Chou's trip is for the purpose of exploring ways and means to restore world Communist unity. Under present conditions, that cannot be done.

However, this seems an opportune time for Red China to use subtle diplomacy. Anxious-sounding pronouncements under the new Soviet leadership hint that the turmoil in high places in Moscow is not ended.

The new regime, with Leonid I. Brezhnev commanding the party and Alexei N. Kosygin the government, still has a rather fragile, transitional look, and it is beset by innumerable contradictory problems.

The Bolshevik Revolution anniversary provides an opportunity for an international meeting of Red leaders to survey the ailments of the world Communist movement against the background of Nikita Khrushchev's dethronement.

The Chinese would not talk with the Russians while Khrushchev remained in the Kremlin. He was their chief target, the top revisionist, the man whose scalp was the price of even a temporary lull in the noisy battle between Peking and Moscow.

Now that there is a new Red regime Peking can claim it is willing to listen, to be reasonable. This display of reasonableness could serve later on as a new club for beating Russians on the head, if Moscow should finally reject China's price for muzzling the dispute.

The Russians have their own demands. They likely would require the Chinese to stop trying to crowd them out of Asia and to ease up their drive for total domination of the revolution and to ease up their drive for total domination of the revolutionary movement in underdeveloped areas.

The Chinese price would require much from the Russians, including abandonment of what Peking calls revisionist theory, willingness to support all violent revolution regardless of risk, greater and more significant aid to China at the expense of nations like India, and a harder Soviet policy toward the United States.

Weather

Experiment Station report for 24 hours ending 7 a.m. Friday: High 79; low 50; precipitation none.

Arkansas Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Needed rain—held to the west by a stationary weather system the past two days—moved across the Arkansas-Oklahoma border today and is expected to sweep across the state by Saturday night.

Rainshowers stretched from the northwest corner of the state to Camden early today. The U.S. Weather Bureau said the rain should be followed by a cold front bringing lower temperatures to the state Sunday.

Maximum temperatures of 66 to 78 degrees are predicted today, with high readings Saturday mostly in the 70s. Overnight low readings in the 40s north and 60s south are predicted.

High temperatures Thursday ranged from 73 degrees at Harrison to 80 degrees at El Dorado. Overnight low readings ranged from 48 degrees at Walnut Ridge to 59 degrees at Texarkana.

Despite Ballot Disaster Barry Goldwater Insists He Made No Big Mistakes

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said of himself and his advisers on the day after election, with the wreckage still being counted from coast to coast: "I can't think of any major mistake we made."

They made some blunders. But Goldwater does not seem to consider his defeat in the presidential campaign, one of the worst in American political history, a repudiation of him or his philosophy of government.

He says he does not think the conservative cause has been hurt, indicates he intends to retain party leadership, and blames part of his defeat on those Republicans who didn't work or vote for him.

But Republicans are making an agonizing inquest on their election disaster and already are in a struggle over the direction and leadership of the party.

None of Goldwater's mistakes was more basic than in misjudging or simply not understanding the interests and thinking of an overwhelming number of Americans, as the election showed. This gets to the root of struggle.

Some other Republicans don't share his opinion when he calls himself a conservative. Therefore, an understanding of conservative is essential to the party's song. It requires definition. The American College Dictionary says:

"A political party whose characteristic principle is opposition to change in the institutions of the country." This was the classic conservative view in the 19th century when the government participated little in American life.

But by this same definition Goldwater is not a conservative at all, for he has proposed not only changing but eliminating many government functions, long accepted by Democrats and Republicans, which have become institutions over the years of this century.

Through his philosophy he made a major mistake before the campaign began in advocating the elimination of various government functions and programs.

He suggested getting rid of the graduated income tax, selling TVA, making Social Security voluntary, pulling the government out of public housing and power, eliminating arm price supports and many social welfare programs, and cutting veterans' benefits.

By voting against the civil rights bill before the campaign began he lost the vote of most American Negroes. Yet, to win, he needed the vote of every individual he could find.

It was before he was a candidate, needing votes, that he felt free to make such statements. They established him as a rugged individualist, although he was a millionaire, and endeared himself to the right wing in American politics.

But when he became a candidate in need of votes he softened much he had said before or fogged it with vagueness. He made only two specific

Remarks You Get Tired of Hearing — Especially If You're a Kitty-Cat

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks a cat gets tired of hearing:

"What good is a cat giving? I never heard of one giving up its life for its master?"

"Scat, Pomfrey! Get off the sofa this very moment."

"You hear a lot about watch-dogs, but never anything about watchcats. If robbers ever came into our house, Pomfrey would probably lead them to the loot."

"If that cat scratches one of the children again, I'm going to throw him out the window — and I really mean it."

"Mama! Mama! This time Pomfrey bit me — and I hardly even touched his old tail. I wasn't pulling it at all."

"He gives me the creeps — always rubbing against my legs right when I'm busy trying to cook a meal."

"I wonder what he'd do if he saw a mouse? Probably run under the bed and hide."

"Daddy, the dog next door will sit up and beg for his food. Why won't Pomfrey? Is he just too dumb?"

cally constructive proposals: cutting taxes and ending the draft.

He made some statements on how he'd handle foreign affairs but he later soft-pedaled them in order to overcome the charge of irresponsibility tacked on him by the Democrats.

He even gave voters cause to question his ability to run the country — just a few weeks before announcing his candidacy — by raising that question himself about himself.

In an interview in McCall's magazine he was quoted: "Dog-gone it, I'm not even sure that I've got the brains to be the president of the United States."

All these were major mistakes but he made others, one of the worst at the Republican convention dominated by Goldwater. There former President Eisenhower condemned extremism.

Govs. George Romney of Michigan and Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York pleaded with the convention to put a plank in the platform condemning extremism. Romney was ignored, Rockefeller booed.

And in his acceptance speech Goldwater defended extremism. This helped split the party more. It was never forgotten and later, realizing what he had done, Goldwater tried to back away from the statement.

On top of everything else he made a kind of empty campaign. He criticized the Democrats but was dim on what he'd do himself. Despite all this, he still can't believe he and his hand-picked team made any big blunders.

Explorer Satellite Successful

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP) — The space agency launched a cylindrical satellite into orbit today and promptly designated it Explorer 23.

Scientists turned on all the experimental equipment aboard the 8-foot-long, 2-foot diameter spacecraft by radio command signals from the ground, and reported that all were operating successfully.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said 2½ hours after the launching that it had confirmed that the 295-pound satellite was in orbit and gathering information on meteoroids in space.

Youngster Has a Good Memory

NEW RICHMOND, Wis. (AP) — Seven-year-old Kirk Lindell asked his father at breakfast Thursday how to begin a political career.

Start with a local office, such as dogcatcher, replied Dr. A.L. Lindell.

The subject was dropped until a homecoming parade for Gov. elect Warren Knowles Thursday night, when the boy asked: "Dad, how long was Mr. Knowles dogcatcher?"

"I read in the paper that some nutty spinster left $50,000 to her cat. If I leave anything to Pomfrey in my will, it'll be a bill for all the furniture he's ruined."

"Oh, what is that — a cat? Please put it in another room. I can't stand them. They make me so nervous."

"You mean to tell me that the cat hotel wants to charge $2 a day to take care of Pomfrey while we're on vacation? Why, that's more than it cost me to go through college."

"I don't care if he is hungry. I'm hungry, too. You can feed him later."

"For the last time, Pomfrey, can't you get it through your thick skull that this is a scratching post? See, you put your claws here, and then you scratch. Good grief, why do I have to have the dumbest cat in the block?"

"If he really has nine lives, I wish he'd start leading a better one, right now."

"Tell Pomfrey to quit stomping around. Doesn't he realize I have a hangover this morning?"

Benton Woman Killed by Car

BENTON, Ark. (AP) — Sarah Kerr, 26, of Benton, was killed Thursday when hit by a car on Arkansas 35 two miles south of here. State Trooper Scott Brown said Robert Jerry, 44, of Benton, drove the car.

Mariner 3 Spaceship Is Failure

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)

— The stricken Mariner 3 spacecraft whirled through space as a helpless hulk today, unable to fulfill its mission as the first spacecraft to probe the planet Mars.

With Mariner 3 a $25-million loss, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration turned attention to Mariner 4, a twin spacecraft which officials hope to launch within two weeks.

Exact date for the launching depends on evaluation of information from Thursday's failure. The space agency has until Dec. 1 to fire the Mariner 4 rocket. After that, Mars will not be in position for a launching until December 1966.

Mariner 3 was to have crossed 350 million miles of space in 8½ months skimming within 8,600 miles of Mars next July 17. During a brief encounter with the planet, the craft was to have snapped pictures and gathered scientific data.

There were indications that the failure resulted because a fiberglass shroud did not separate from the spacecraft. The shroud as designed to protect Mariner 3 from aerodynamic stresses during the upward push through the earth's atmosphere, then was to eject.

Jack N. James, Mariner project director, said early today the shroud may not have separated cleanly and somehow "hung up" on the spacecraft. A full evaluation of the data, to take several days, should pinpoint the exact cause of the failure in time to make a correction for Mariner 4, James said.

James said failure of the shroud to eject could account for an initial report that the Atlas-Agena D rocket's second-stage shutdown prematurely and for the failure of the spacecraft's solar panels to unfold. However, a detailed study showed that the engine had performed as planned and that retention of the 300-pound shroud could slow the speed of Mariner 3 sufficiently to give an indication of early shutdown.

Signals first indicated the solar panels had folded like butterfly wings as planned. Later it was determined that they did not. Purpose of the panels was to draw power from the sun to operate Mariner 3's batteries.

Legion Meeting Called Nov. 24

Commander Bill Ellis has announced that there will be a meeting of The American Legion, Leslie Huddleston Post 12, Tuesday, Nov. 24, at the Hempstead County court house in the big courtroom. The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and every member is urged to be present.

Henry E. Hudson, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Little Rock, will be present with members of his staff to discuss new legislation that will be of vital interest to all veterans.

Commander Ellis would also like to remind all members who have not paid their 1965 American Legion Dues to do so before the 11th of November.

Guy Basye School Fund Chairman

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — Guy Basye of Hope, Ark., has been named sectional chairman of the $400,000 development fund program of Evangel College, Springfield, Mo.

He is one of 10 sectional chairmen in the southeast part of the United States, and one of forty in the entire country. Each sectional chairman has a fund raising goal of $10,000. Assistant Basye will be ten sectional representatives, each responsible for raising $1,000.

Ex-Air Chief Strong Man of Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Vice President Rene Barrientos, a general and former air force chief of staff, has emerged from the Bolivian revolt as president just as ousted President Victor Paz Estenssoro said he would.

Barrientos, a leader of the revolt against Paz, flew from his home in Cochabamba to La Paz Thursday, and the chief of the armed forces, Gen. Alfredo Obando Candia, announced he and the vice president would be co-presidents.

An hour later Barrientos announced Obando had decided to resign in his favor "to cooperate in the re-establishment of tranquility in the country."

Obando had taken control in Peru Wednesday morning. Obando's withdrawal in favor of Barrientos eased the tense and chaotic situation, but the country still was far from stable.

The army has taken possession of public buildings in La Paz, but armed civilian bands roamed the streets. Possibly 40 persons were killed and 150 wounded in fighting Wednesday and Wednesday night between supporters and opponents of the deposed president.

Ouachita Co. Goes Wet in Local Option

Ouachita county voted wet in its local option election last Tuesday, it developed today in a delayed wrapup of minor issues around the state.

The vote was 6,305 for the wets, against 5,618 for the dries. Two years ago Ouachita voted dry in a squeaker election, the returns being thrown into a court contest. Liquor sales never were actually suspended the past two years, due to the court contest, and Tuesday's voting ended the flight in favor of the wets.

Bobby Jones Is Well After Fall

ATLANTA (AP) — Bobby Jones, one of the most famous golfers in the sport's history, planned today to leave the hospital where he has been treated for three fractured ribs suffered in a fall at his home.

Jones is confined to a wheel chair. He suffered the fall as he wheeled himself to his television set and attempted to move his chair back.

Jones said he was doing fine. "I don't feel anything at all. It's very minor."

Nuclear Try May Help in Oil Testing

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A nuclear blast has burned out a huge cave 1,320 feet underground in a test of new ways to get at oil and mineral deposits. The cave is big enough to hold a 20-story building.

A 20-foot-high spurt of dust, kicked up by the jolt, was seen over the Nevada test site Thursday, but Atomic Energy Commission scientists said no radioactive material escaped.

The scientists expected the blast, equivalent to 10,000 tons of TNT, to create a cavity up to 230 feet in diameter but said it would be several days before exploratory holes are drilled.

This was the first time a nuclear blast has been set off in carbonate rock, a type which frequently contains mineral deposits and reservoirs of oil and gas. Earlier underground blasts were in softer material.

An AEC spokesman said the main object of Thursday's detonation was to test the potential of nuclear energy for breaking up huge masses of mineral-bearing rock at extreme depths and for creating cracks through which oil and gas can be recovered.

Mining and oil companies currently use conventional explosives to get at underground deposits, but atomic energy is expected eventually to do the job more economically.

Thursday's blast, called "Project Handcar," was part of the AEC program to find peaceful uses for nuclear energy.

Athlete Who Couldn't Buy Air Ticket Goes 11,000 Miles in Box

By GORDON TAIT

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — An Australian athlete had himself shipped home c.o.d. from Britain in a wooden crate because he couldn't afford a passenger ticket for the 11,000-mile flight.

Reginald Spiers, 22, of Adelaide, spent 63 hours in the slatted box without food or water, Sydney newspapers reported. Friends and relatives in Adelaide confirmed the story today.

The accounts said a friend nailed up the box Oct. 17 in London and Spiers landed at Perth Oct. 20 on an Air India flight, then hitchhiked 1,800 miles to Adelaide.

"There was enough space between the planks to give me air and allow me to peep out," he said.

An Air India spokesman said an empty wooden crate big enough to hold a man was found today at the air cargo depot in Perth. Sent c.o.d., it was consigned to a nonexistent shoe factory at a nonexistent address.

Sydney newspapers said Spiers, a 170-pound, javelin thrower, worked his way to London by ship in hopes of winning an Australian Olympic team berth in trials but failed and, because he was broke, seized on the idea of flying home in the crate.

Spiers had gone to London to take part in English track and field events, hoping that if he did well Australia might pick him for the Olympic team. But he made a poor showing in Britain.

He gave notice to Air India that he wanted to consign a crate of plastic emulsion to a Perth firm. He said he climbed inside the box Oct. 17 and friends drove him to the airport.

At Bombay, he was taken out on a forklift, held aloft, then manhandled into another Boeing 707 "and soon we were flying again."

Spiers said, "The crate was dumped in a shed and after a few hours I decided to break out."

He crawled out dizzy and weak, he said. After resting awhile, he cut his way through a wire mesh door and hitchhiked home to his wife and daughter in time to attend a brother's wedding.

Spiers said the crate with him inside weighed about 500 pounds and the freight charge was about $950. That is $280 more than the passenger fare, but passengers can't travel c.o.d. "As far as I know, no freight payment has been collected on this consignment," said the Air India spokesman.

Audubon Club Hears 2 Speakers

The local Audubon Society met at the Diamond Cafe Dining room Thursday night with Jack Logan, state Treasurer from Texarkana, as the guest speaker.

He told how beginners could tell the difference in birds by the wing or eye-stripe or the color. Mr. Logan brought a guest with him, Charles Gardner, who has made slides in this area, which will be shown in a repeat performance later this month. Mr. Gardner, also told of a trip taken to New Mexico where he credited 40 birds to his count.

Club members were reminded to keep a definite count of each bird they have seen. Jack Lowe urged the members to have gourds put out for bird-houses and said now was the time for martin boxes to be marked for a scout bird will come around to mark the places.

Jack Gardner gave an account of the Helena meeting and described the birds seen. He urged all members to enter the National Audubon contest December 22-January 3. The count will determine what birds stay and what birds leave a certain area. A discussion was held on the holding of a bird tour at Grassy Lake.

Rockefeller Party in LR Saturday

The thousands of Arkansans who worked on behalf of Win Rockefeller's candidacy are invited to a party Saturday, November 7, in Little Rock at Barton Coliseum, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller are sponsoring the coat-and-tie affair to show their appreciation for the effort, which produced almost twice as many votes than ever before cast for a Republican candidate in Arkansas.

Soft drinks, ice cream and cake will be served. Entertainment will be provided by Sammy Kaye and his Orchestra.

Ford Struck by Union in Key Plants

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union struck today against key Ford Motor Co. manufacturing and assembly plants over unsettled local labor agreements.

At least eight out of 11 unsettled units were struck. The walkout left Ford with a selling supply of about 32 days of autos and a 38-selling-days supply of trucks.

The effect on production could not immediately be detailed, but indications were Ford could make some autos for two weeks or more.

A Ford spokesman said assembly plants were struck this morning at Dallas; Wayne, Mich.; truck; Wayne autos; Chicago stamping; Ypsilanti, Mich.; manufacturing; Sheffield, Ala.; manufacturing; Sterling Twp., Mich.; manufacturing, and Louisville assembly.

The status of the assembly plant at St. Louis and manufacturing plants at Bedford, Ohio, and Buffalo, N.Y. was not immediately determined.

The bargaining units had their international union's approval to walk out at 10 a.m. if settlements were lacking at that hour.

Only those plants with unsettled local contracts which supplement the national agreement, signed in September, were given permission to strike.

Ford has 160,000 production workers in 90 bargaining units across the country.

The number of men off the job was not immediately determined.

While only a handful of Ford's bargaining units were on strike, these were at key plants.

The Ford strike came as General Motors Corp. reached 92 per cent of its production capacity.

Auto Deaths Hit Record This Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's traffic deaths in the first nine months this year hit an all-time record, and the toll appeared racing to a record high in 1964.

The National Safety Council said today there were 34,570 deaths on highways from Jan. 1 to Oct. 1. The total was an increase of 10 per cent over the 31,310 killed in traffic accidents in the corresponding three quarters of last year.

The council said the nation's traffic fatalities, which for 20 consecutive months have exceeded those of the same month of a year earlier, apparently will reach a toll of about 48,000 this year. That would be an all-time high after the previous record of 43,600 deaths last year.

sident & General Manager of our agency delivering a claim check in the amount of $1599, to Mr.
Ross to cover his theft loss. Viewing the proceedings is Mr. Paul Lang, resident adjuster, GAB.

Mr. Ross will tell you that he is pleased with the fast and fair claim service he received. We appreciate his attitude, but after all, we are doing just what Mr.
Ross or you would expect YOUR insurance agent to do.

"walks" right over bumps and trouble

Independent front suspension takes the "truck" out of truck ride. It smooths rough roads, protects truck, driver and cargo from excessive jolting. And on Chevrolet pickups it's a proved system with millions of miles of user experience behind it. Try it out on one of Chevrolet's great Fleetside or Stepside pickups. It's one of the big reasons that Chevrolet is first choice with pickup users from coast to coast.

week's over-all industry production.

The trade paper Automotive News estimated total production at 162,193 units, compared to 119,149 last week. A year ago this week—when there were no strikes—production hit 189,187.

It was not clear how severely Ford might be affected if the 10 plants were struck.

Ford, like General Motors and Chrysler, has agreed with the UAW on national contracts. Chrysler has agreed both nationally and locally.

American Motors, smallest of the American producers, has no strike threats although contract wording over production rates has yet to be worked out.

The UAW's Ford strike authorizations included assembly plants at St. Louis, Louisville, Dallas and Wayne, Mich. The other six are factories at Ypsilanti and Sterling Township, Mich.; Sheffield, Ala.; Chicago; Bedford, Ohio, and Buffalo, N.Y.

Tex., attended the funeral of Mrs. R.E. Cain and has been the guest this week of Mrs. Mae Blackard.

Mrs. Sam Strong is visiting in Houston with her daughter, Miss Carolyn Strong.

Mrs. Robert Huber of Detroit is here with Mrs. C.P. Telleson and the Bill Tolleson family in Hot Springs with C.P. Tolleson at St. Joseph Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Greer Bell have visited in their home this week their son, Lt. Joe L. Bell, U.S. Navy, and his wife, Barbara, and their daughter, Rebecca, who is also the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Greer Bell.

After leaving Hope, the Bell's will make their new home in Collinswood, N.J. where Lt. Bell is assigned to the pre-commissioning crew of the nuclear submarine, USS Guardfish (SSN-612).

"DEAR ABBY"

CHECK THE FACTS, MA'AM!

By Abigail Van Buren
Dear Abby: The letter about the office hay ride party prompted this comment because, for the past ten years, that is what I have been arguing with my husband about. He works for a big company and almost every other weekend they have a party for someone who is being married, transferred, retired, or for any other reason they can think up. Husbands and wives are not invited. I've heard my husband and some of his co-workers talk about what goes on at these parties, and believe me, I don't like it. There is drinking and dancing, and the young unmarried girls fall all over the married men. My husband always has the money for these office parties, but just let me ask him for a few dollars for something the kids or I needed, and he doesn't have it. He claims the HAS to go to these parties. I say, like heck he does. When the company stopped the annual Christmas party, and gave each employee a turkey instead, I was so happy. Why does the management permit these other parties go on? It only causes hard feelings between the employees and their families.

NOT INVITED

Dear Not: If you will investigate, you'll probably find that the management has nothing to do with these parties. They are organized by the employees, (usually one or two with unsatisfied drives). Management bends over backward to encourage family unity and to discourage the kind of togetherness outside the office that you describe. And only those who want to participate do so.

Dear Abby: Every night I am awakened by the voice of a strange woman giving my husband French lessons. This is done via a tape recorder, a timer and a speaker which is placed under his pillow. The lessons last approximately one-half hour while my 200-pounder slumbers. It would not be so bad if I were not awakened during the night by other sounds. The baby needs changing, or

Vacation Is Ahead for Goldwater

By WALTER R. MEARS
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater flies to Washington today for a brief business stop before going on a vacation, reportedly to Jamaica.

The defeated Republican presidential nominee planned to take care of some business from the Senate job he is leaving.

He withdrew from the race for re-election when he won the GOP nomination to oppose President Johnson.

Goldwater and his wife planned to go to their Washington apartment, which the senator said he will keep although he is going to move back to Phoenix.

Paul F. Wagner, press secretary, said the Goldwaters probably would leave during the weekend for a vacation.

They have not said where they are going but their vacation spot is rumored to be in Jamaica. Wagner said that Goldwater's plans would not be made public.

Wagner said Thursday Goldwater has received more than 5,000 telegrams, virtually unanimous in backing his announced effort to keep the Republican party on a conservative course.

"Practically everyone of them was along the lines of 'it's a great fight and don't give up now,'" Wagner said.

10-Year-Old Is Shot by Brother

DARDANELLE, Ark. (AP) — James Lee Barnett, 10, of Dardanelle, was accidentally shot to death by his older brother Thursday, Coroner Glenn Bailey of Yell County said.

Bailey said John Henry Barnett, 14, was carrying a 16-gauge shotgun that discharged, striking his brother in the chest. They had been hunting.

wants his bottle, or has an occasional nightmare. Please tell me, Abby, am I unreasonable to object to having a French lesson at 2 a.m.?

Mother of Seven And Tired
Dear Mother: Non!

Dear Abby: A few weeks ago I had a birthday party for my twin sons, who were five years old. We sent one invitation to each child and signed it John and Jack. Each child who attended the twins' party brought two gifts—one for each twin. Now each of my twins has received an invitation to attend the birthday party of one of the boys who attended theirs. Do you think this was a hint that the little boy expects two gifts? One from each twin? Thank you.

PUZZLED

Dear Puzzled: When twins give one gift "from the twins" it is usually twice as expensive as one gift would have been. I don't know whether individual invitations were sent as a hint that two gifts were expected, but if you have any such suspicions, put your mind at ease and send two gifts.

EVERYONE wants to knock off the champ

Every team in the conference — and every man on every team — is out to knock off the champion. Everyone wants the glory of "taking" the champ.

Every now and then you see an article or hear a speech that is plainly trying to "knock off" Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

Why?
Getting to the top is hard. Staying there is harder.
Blue Cross-Blue Shield is No. 1.
And staying there.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Because of a typographical problem we are reprinting the Vote for President tabulation which appeared in yesterday's Star. You will have noticed that about half-way down the tabulation the names of the states got out of line with the election figures. The slugs have been aligned correctly in today's reprinting.

Here was our problem: The Associated Press transmitted the table in two separate dispatches - one carrying the states' names, the other the election figures, because use of the automatic Teletypewriter wire is restricted to one-column material.

In turning the perforated tape of the wire into type it so happened that the two dispatches were processed by different linotypes, and, it being impossible to get any two linotypes adjusted to match slugs exactly, the two columns of type developed a "creep" which caused the states and the figures to get out of alignment.

What did we do today? This is the answer: We inserted a double-column blank slug between each pair of state-figure slugs. Like the slugs in an old-fashioned corset, the double-column blank slug holds each pair of type slugs in alignment - all the way down the tabulation.

Cuban Defense Has an Odd Job

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) - Havana Radio says members of Castro Cuba's revolutionary defense committees have a new job—collecting wine and whiskey bottles to meet the Christmas demand.

The defense committees, with a member in each block of householders, distribute food and clothing ration cards and report counterrevolutionary activity to the authorities.

A broadcast Thursday, monitored in Miami, said the government asked that 3.5 million wine and liquor bottles be turned in for refills.

November Is Bad Time in Southwest

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

There is no indication of it but Saturday is the time for upsets in Southwest Conference football.

It's November, an undefeated, untied team—Arkansas—sits atop the heap, and no one thinks it is about to be dislodged.

That's when "the bigger they come the harder they fall" becomes the battle cry of this whacky conference. Most times it works although Texas managed to survive the storm last season.

Arkansas, boasting an eight-game winning streak and with cotton in its eye, braces for the charge of an outfit that would like to start the ball rolling along the upset trail—the Rice Owls.

There are games ahead but this one appears to be the turning point if there is to be one. Should Arkansas win it, the Razorbacks could clinch the Cotton Bowl host spot by beating hapless Southern Methodist the following week.

It wouldn't be clinching the championship but it would mean that only Texas might tie the Razorbacks for the title, in which event Arkansas still would go to the Cotton Bowl. Arkansas beat Texas.

Arkansas and Rice clash at Fayetteville in one of three afternoon games Saturday. The Razorbacks aim to make it the third shutout in a row as they tighten an already hard-bitten defense.

Texas, just one game behind Arkansas and the last team left with much of a chance of tying for the title, plays Baylor at Waco, expected to win easily enough despite the absence of three top players via the injury

Southern Methodist and Texas A&M, both winless in conference play and in the case of Texas A&M, winless for the season, clash in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas to see which occupies the conference cellar.

Texas Tech rests from conference warfare but meets an old friend of its Border Conference days—West Texas State. The Red Raiders are heavy favorites but the record shows that West Texas has won as often as Tech in the past six meetings.

Texas Christian, the other conference member, is an interested spectator only. The Horned Frogs took the week off to get ready for Texas.

Crowds totaling 140,000 are due to see the four games with 40,000 at Waco, 35,000 at Dallas, 33,000 at Fayetteville and 32,000 at Lubbock.

with the fourth a tie game made the forecasting average exceedingly good last week. Here's another effort:

Arkansas-Rice—Can't see the Owls maintaining their no-touch-down defensive record against the versatile Arkansas offense—Arkansas by two touch-downs.

Texas-Baylor—Texas will control Baylor's passing attack and the Bear defense is weak — a lusty vote for Texas.

Southern Methodist Texas A&M—It's eight straight losses for the Aggies.

Texas Tech-West Texas State —Tech has too many guns and will blow the Buffaloes down.

Sniffing Bowl: That's Champ Land

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

What a difference a year makes.

Just 12 months ago, Pittsburgh was sniffing bowl country, that promised land for college football's top teams. A bowl bid was the remotest thing imaginable for Notre Dame, struggling along in what was to become a 2-7 season. Pitt's 27-7 victory was hardly unexpected.

Saturday the tables will be turned. The Panthers and Irish clash again but this time it's Notre Dame riding the crest of an unbeaten season and No. 1 in the country while Pitt sports an undistinguished 2-3-2 record.

What happened in the 365 days? Well, for one thing, Pitt lost a top runner in Paul Marth and for another Notre Dame found a top coach in Ara Parseghian.

Does the turnabout extend to bowl talk too? Among the bowl promoters the answer is a resounding yes but out in South Bend, Ind., it's a just as loud no.

Although more than one bowl would love to snare an attraction like Notre Dame, Athletic Director Ed (Moose) Krause put a damper on the dialogue Thursday.

"Notre Dame's policy will remain the same as it has been since 1925," Krause said. "We're not going to any bowl game."

Krause seems adamant but there are other teams that aren't exactly hiding from bowl scouts. Take Alabama and LSU for example.

Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide has rattled off seven straight victories in spite of an injury to star quarterback Joe Namath. The Tide is third in this week's Associated Press rankings.

LSU, No. 8, is coached by a former Bryant pupil, Charlie

Lakers in Tie With Hawks

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Lakers have moved into a tie with the St. Louis Hawks in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association.

The Lakers matched St. Louis' 5-3 record Thursday night by defeating the New York Knickerbockers 106-96 in Los Angeles. It was the only game scheduled.

To Split AA and AAA Tournaments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Athletic Association voted unanimously Thursday to have separate Class AA and Class AAA senior boys basketball tournaments.

A proposal to separate the senior girls tournaments was voted down.

Since 1958, the Class AA and Class AAA tournaments have been the same one, with AA regions sending 12 entries and AAA regions sending four.

Now Class AAA will set up its own mechanics for qualifying teams to the tournament. The AA regions will each send four teams to their tournament.

First commercially successful open hearth furnace was built at South Boston, Mass., in 1870.

McClendon, and has just the kind of grudging defense a team needs to have a chance against 'Bama's high powered offense.

Their game at Birmingham should produce a bowl bid for the winner.

The weekend's college fare gets started tonight with two games. Tulane visits Miami of Florida and Virginia Military plays at Detroit.

In Saturday's other major games, Ohio State, which dropped to second after a close call against Iowa, plays Penn State; No. 4 Arkansas meets Rice; fifth-ranked Nebraska takes on Kansas; Texas, No. 6, plays Baylor; seventh-ranked Georgia Tech meets Tennessee; Florida, No. 9, takes on Georgia and No. 10 Purdue plays Michigan State.

Rain Likely for Rice vs. Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau here has issued this forecast for the football game between Arkansas and Rice at Fayetteville Saturday afternoon:

Light showers ending early Saturday, becoming partly cloudy and a little cooler by afternoon. Afternoon temperature in low 60s. Winds southwest eight to 15 m.p.h.

Game time is 2 p.m.

Fulbright on Mission to Belgrade

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., left Thursday for Belgrade to sign a treaty with Yugoslavia Monday for exchanging Fulbright scholars and professors between the nations.

It will be the first such agreement with a communist country. The United States has similar agreements with about 40 non-communist nations.

Congress approved the Fulbright scholarship legislation in 1948. William R. Tyler, assistant secretary of state for European affairs, is traveling with Fulbright.
